

2016 Harvest Cellar Intern

Pacific Wine Service is a custom winemaking facility located in Paso Robles, CA. State of the art technology, blended with the knowledge and experience of our professional staff, makes Pacific Wine Service the perfect option for clients of all levels of wine industry experience. With over 30 clients, as an intern you'll be able to learn from some of the best in the area. You'll learn different techniques & styles of wine making and get to work with fruit from different areas all in one location.

Duties are to included but are not limited to:

- Grape receiving, sorting and operating crush equipment
- Juice and wine rackings and transfers
- Additions, fermentation monitoring
- Daily punch downs and pump-overs
- Cleaning and sanitation
- Cleaning, filling, racking, and topping barrels
- Drain, digging and pressing tanks
- Perform other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Good interpersonal skills
- Be hard working, dependable and flexible to work overtime, weekends & holidays (Mid August/early September to Mid November)
- The ability to work long hard hours 6 to 7 days a week while maintaining a positive attitude
- Ability to follow instructions and take direction
- Possess great attention to detail
- Work well as a team member
- Eagerness to learn, and the ability to think ahead and anticipate the next steps
- Must have reliable transportation

Working Conditions:

- Standing for long period of time (8 hours or more)
- Must comply with all safety equipment requirements
- Exposure to machinery and forklifts
- Long and irregular hours during peak periods on various shifts
- Extensive walking and lifting of up to 50 pounds
- Work outside in varying weather conditions.

Salary:

To Be determined based on experience.

We are seeking enthusiastic, energetic and hard-working individuals to join our 2016 harvest team. The right candidates are flexible, dependable, hard-working and really interested in wine production. If you'd like to be part of a great team, we encourage you to submit your resume.

Contact Information:

Please email your resume to: Jessica@pacificwineservices.com