

Shareen Abramson
Literacy, Early Childhood, Bilingual, and Special Education
Fresno State
Professor
Appointed Fall 1981

Academic Degrees

PhD, Early Childhood Education, George Peabody College for Teachers (now of Vanderbilt University)
MA, Curriculum & Instruction, Antioch University
Standard Teaching Credential (K-8) Program, California State University, Northridge
BA, English, University of California, Los Angeles

Other Professional Experiences

- Day Care Teacher, Nashville Child Center, 1979
- Assistant Teacher, Experimental School, Kennedy Center, George Peabody College for Teachers, 1978
- Classroom Teacher, Kindergarten, Grade 1, 1974-1978

Teaching Experience at Fresno State

- LEE 148 – Integrated Curriculum
- LEE 233 – Curriculum & Assessment in Early Childhood Education
- LEE 232 – Literacy in Early Childhood Education
- LEE 241 – Fieldwork in Early Childhood Education
- EHD 178ECE – Fieldwork B Supervision
- EHD 170ECE – Fieldwork C Supervision
- LEE 298B – Master's Project
- LEE 190 – Independent Study

Other Collegiate Work

- Early Childhood Education Comprehensive Examination Coordinator
- Transitional Kindergarten Certificate Program Development

Professional Association Memberships

- National Association for the Education of Young Children

Selected Publications

DeVoogd, G., Turner, E. & Abramson, S. (in preparation) Perspectives of African American male students on their experiences and relationships at school.