Fresno State offers face-to-face teaching methodology courses in Spring 2018 for teachers who are pursuing a Foundational-Level Mathematics (FLM) or Foundational-Level General Science (FLGS) credential. Teachers pursuing full math or science credentials may take the methods courses offered in Fall 2017 (and again in Fall 2018). Those who aren't students at Fresno State may register for these courses via Open University. Contact the instructors, Dr. Rajee Amarasinghe (ramarasi@csufresno.edu, math) and Dr. Fred Nelson (fnelson@csufresno.edu, science) for more information.
