

Kremen School of Education and Human Development

Verification of Subject Matter Proficiency

To be admitted to the Multiple Subject or Education Specialist Credential program, applicants must demonstrate Subject Matter proficiency. This requirement can be met by passing the CSETs or through completing of an approved Subject Matter Proficiency Program (pending CTC approval).

Complete this form to verify how you have met Subject Matter proficiency.

Student Information

Last Name First Name Former Name (If applicable) Student ID

Credential Desired (Multiple Subject, Education Specialist, Dual, other)_____

CSET Option (Score report must be attached.)

CSET Scores: 101 _____ 102 _____ 103 _____

Approved Subject Matter Proficiency Program (Transcript attached)

Fresno State Liberal Studies (pending approval)*

Date of Completion _____

Additional Subject Matter Proficiency Program (to be added)

Date of Completion _____

* We are currently applying for Subject Matter Proficiency Program Approval. You will be admitted to the credential program without CSETs if you complete a BA degree in Liberal Studies in or after Spring 2016.

If we are not granted SMPP approval before your final student teaching semester you will be required to take and pass all three CSETs prior to final student teaching.

Initial