

Class of 2016-2017 Candidates

Congratulations! As a candidate for a Bachelor's Degree in Liberal Studies, a Wayfinders Program certificate, a credential, a Master's Degree within the Kremen School of Education and Human Development, or a Doctorate Degree in Educational Leadership, you are finally reaching a goal that you have worked so hard for over these past years. The Kremen School of Education and Human Development wants to formally recognize you for this great achievement in front of your family, peers, guests, and faculty. This Convocation Guide should provide you with everything you need to know to be prepared for this memorable event. If you have any questions that this guide doesn't answer for you or if you are unsure about any aspect of Convocation, please contact us at 559.278.0300 or email at kremenschool@csufresno.edu.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE?

The Kremen School of Education and Human Development Convocation is open to all students graduating from the Kremen School and students completing their credential during the academic year 2016-2017 (Summer 2016, Fall 2016, and Spring 2017). Those students who have completed their degree in Summer or Fall 2016, or applied to complete their degree in Spring 2017 are automatically included in the ceremony. No additional forms are necessary to participate.

Pre-Ceremony Reception

The Kremen School of Education and Human Development will be hosting a reception for all graduates and their family and friends in the Smittcamp Alumni House prior to the ceremony on Friday, May 19, 2017. This will be a great time for family and graduates to meet faculty and take photos. The reception will start at 5:00pm and dinner will be served. Stop by and take some photos with your most memorable faculty and start your celebration!

Ceremony Information

The Kremen School of Education and Human Development Convocation will be held Friday, May 19, 2017 at the Save Mart Center. The ceremony will begin at 7:15 p.m. Please check your Fresno State e-mail frequently for important updates. Those graduating will need to arrive by 6:30 p.m.

The student procession will be in the following order: South Side – Liberal Studies, Wayfinders, and then Credential. North Side – Doctoral, Master's, Platform Party, and then Faculty.

We will start the student procession promptly at 7:15 p.m. The ceremony will last approximately two and half hours. Guest tickets are not required. As a graduate you can invite as many guests as you like. You may park on campus without a permit for graduation events. Guest seating is on a first come, first served basis. Special seating for guests with disabilities is available at the Save Mart Center. Please have your guests who need special seating contact an event staff member when they enter the Save Mart Center.

Attire

All Liberal Studies, Master's, and Doctoral Degree Candidates should be attired in cap and gown (Be sure to ask the bookstore if you have the correct color for your hood, etc.). Credential and Wayfinders Certificate candidates should be dressed in business attire.

Please note: If you are part of an honors society you are welcome to wear your cords, medallions, etc.

Class Stoles

The Kremen School of Education and Human Development will sell stoles to commemorate the graduating class. The stoles are available for purchase in the Kremen Education Center for Advising and Student Services, ED 100 for $25 each starting April 10, 2017. Please stop by ED 100 or call 559.278.0300 for information on how to purchase a stole.

Honors at Convocation

Undergraduate students are eligible to graduate with Honors if their campus and cumulative GPA is at least 3.5 and they have completed at least 45 units at Fresno State. For students completing the degree in Spring 2017, the GPA is based upon the Fall 2016 semester, not the Spring 2017 semester. Eligible students will receive a letter via email with further information on purchasing an honor cord that can be worn at Convocation.

Photography

Grad Images (www.gradimages.com) will be taking pictures of each candidate as they shake hands with Dean Beare on stage at Convocation. Once the candidate exits the stage another picture will be taken individually. The photographer will be mailing a color proof to each graduate to their permanent mailing address. There is no obligation to purchase the photo packages that are available.

Convocation Programs

Kremen School of Education and Human Development Convocation programs will be available as guests enter the Save Mart Center. Programs will also be placed on the chairs for each candidate.

Guest Reminders
