Chief David Huerta and Ms. Amy Armstrong School Safety

Chief David Huerta is the chief of police at Fresno State. The Fresno State Police Department takes pride in being a part of the Bulldog family. Our actions exemplify our school spirit. We will strive to make decisions that embody the spirit of the law, diversity, and excellence. We are committed to Service; professional service that fosters trust and confidence. Everyone at the Fresno State Police Department works to provide the highest level of service to our campus community in order to create a safe and healthy learning environment. As a part of the university community it is important for all to take part in community oriented policing and problem solving. We are committed to establishing strong community partnerships to identify solutions to campus challenges.

Ms. Amy Armstrong is a parking administrator with Traffic Operations department at Fresno State. Our goal is to provide you with safe and reliable access to our campus. We are dedicated to maintaining accessible, attractive and safe parking facilities. Our objective is to manage parking resources efficiently, emphasizing customer service, so that students, faculty, staff and visitors are able to park without difficulty and lawfully. Our transportation demand management objectives are to develop and maintain commuter programs, promote transportation alternatives, mitigate traffic congestion and reduce parking demand.
