Spring 2012 Initiation ceremony is scheduled for April 18, 2012

Scholarship Proposal from Nora & Madison

Each year:

- February 28 Deadline for University Scholarship application
- March PKP Scholarship Committee meets
- April 1 Deadline for Phi Kappa Phi scholarship committee to select a new campus recipient of the PKP Scholarship*the recipient should be a junior (i.e., someone with one more year on campus)—this truly varies on a case by case basis, so they should do a PeopleSoft search for those with at least ninety units on the transcript [including the units for classes in that spring semester], and then weed out the ones who will graduate before or after May of the following year [this is not easily discernible from the number of units; department chairs/faculty mentors must be consulted to find out]*they should be looking for someone who appears to be grad school bound, and thus they can then mentor the person through the process of applying to the big national PKP grad scholarship during the student's senior year
- April 18 Initiation, where the newly selected recipient is honored *shortly before initiation, we should issue a press release highlighting the fact that scholars from all schools/colleges will be honored for their academic excellence at the ceremony, and we should highlight the PKP Scholarship and give a little background on this newly named PKP scholar of the year
- June 30 At latest—inform Alumni Association of the chosen scholarship recipient
- October Top Dog event, where PKP Scholar is recognized
- October-February PKP and faculty mentors help the PKP Scholarship recipient with the application to the national PKP grad fellowship
- February 28 Deadline for University Scholarship application
