

California State University, Fresno Core Values

California State University, Fresno's first and foremost goal is to promote the success of all students. In order to achieve this, the University pledges to act in accordance with the following values:

Access and Diversity

Opportunity
Inclusiveness
Tolerance and freedom of expression

Discovery

Pursuit of knowledge for its own sake
Encouragement of lifelong learning
Commitment to the expansion of knowledge and understanding

Engagement and Sustainability

Service to others
Commitment to making a difference
Respect for self, others, and the environment

Integrity

Honesty and truthfulness
Leadership and character
Stewardship of University resources

Excellence

Encouragement of accomplished, passionate faculty, staff and administration
Provision of resources to promote achievement
Commitment to quality and accountability