FOOTNOTES:

Prerequisites/Corequisites: Other restrictions may apply. Please see your course catalog for detailed prerequisite/corequisite requirements.

Grade Requirements: CR/NC grading is not permitted in the Political Science major.

General Education: Units in this area may be used toward a double major or minor (in something other than Political Science; see Double Major or departmental minor). Consult the appropriate department chair, program coordinator, or faculty advisor for further information.

Electives (33 units): Units in this area may be used toward a double major or minor. Students must earn a minimum of 120 units total to graduate. The number of required elective units may vary, depending on the amount of units earned from major and GE courses. The department highly recommends that the student select upper-division electives in at least three of the following disciplines: Anthropology, African American Studies, Economics, English, Geography, History, Chicano and Latin American Studies, Philosophy, Sociology, or City and Regional Planning. Consult advisor for specifically recommended courses.

Upper Division Writing Skills requirement (UDWS): All undergraduate students must demonstrate competency in writing skills by passing the Upper Division Writing Exam (UDWE) or by obtaining a C or better in an approved upper division writing course, identified by the letter "W."
