LUNAFEST?: Films By, For and About Women

The 8th Annual National Film Festival is being held at Fresno State

November 21, 2008 at 7 p.m.
In the Satellite Student Union

LUNAFEST is a fundraising film festival dedicated to promoting awareness about women's issues, highlighting women filmmakers, and bringing women together in their communities.

This unique film festival will highlight women as leaders in society, illustrated through ten films by women filmmakers. The films range from animated shorts to fictional drama, and cover topics such as women's health, body image, spirituality, relationships, cultural diversity,
and breaking barriers.

All the proceeds from LUNAFEST will go to the Breast Cancer Fund and the Women's Resource Center.

Tickets prices: Fresno State Students?FREE
$5 for non-Fresno State Students $10 for General Admission in advance and $12 for General Admission at the door.

Advanced tickets can be purchased at Javawava or the Women's Resource Center.

Parking will be relaxed (free) in parking lot P.

Sponsored by USU Productions, The Women's Resource Center, and ASI
