

Spring 2010

WS 126/CRIM 126:
Women, Violence and the Law

This course looks at the historic and contemporary issues in public policy responses to violence against women, gender bias in the legal system and policing violence against women. Theory and research on problems in government policy and enforcement of the law.

Day and Time: MWF 12:00-12:50

Instructor: Melissa Knight

Class Numbers: WS 31260 / CRIM 31296

Room # SS 209B

Elective Certificate in Victim Services;*
Cluster 3 for Women's Studies Majors.