Confidential Policy and Release of Information

Information provided to the TRIO Student Support Services – Disabilities (SSS-D) Program regarding a student's academic work is considered confidential. No information about a student is released to any on/off campus individual/agency without the student's written consent.

To work effectively with students, TRIO SSS-D may need to share information with and/or obtain information from other Fresno State departments, instructors, and other professionals who have a legitimate educational need to know. When it is necessary and appropriate to discuss your educational situation with other Fresno State employees and off-campus agency individuals, they will be reminded of their obligation to keep this information confidential as mandated by FERPA (Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974). This may include but is not limited to: Accessibility Services, Student Health and Counseling Services, Academic Advising and Career Education, WorkAbility IV Program, and California Department of Rehabilitation. Only information that TRIO SSS-D deems appropriate is released, and only for the following reasons:

- To assess a student's need for TRIO SSS-D services.
- To provide appropriate TRIO SSS-D services.
- To advocate (when requested) on a student's behalf requirements.
- To comply with University/CSU and TRIO SSS-D reporting.

I understand that I have a right to receive a copy of this authorization upon my request. I authorize TRIO SSS-D to share information about me under the conditions outlined above. I understand that this authorization becomes effective immediately. It shall automatically terminate upon graduation from Fresno State or when I am no longer registered at Fresno State. A photocopy of this form is as valid as the original.
