

January 12, 2012

RE: Your Academic Standing: Probation

Your academic standing is probation.

As of January 7, 2012, your records at California State University, Fresno, indicate that your grades have placed you in academic probation standing. It is possible that you could enter disqualification standing if your grades slip further. During the spring 2012 semester you are expected to achieve the following:

1. Enroll in no more than 13 units during the spring 2012 semester.
2. It is recommended that you complete a Maximizing Academic Potential (MAP) workshop during the spring 2012 semester. To sign up for a MAP workshop click here and follow the instructions.
3. Meet regularly with your faculty or academic advisor.

If you have questions please send an email to probation_disqualification@mail.fresnostate.edu

I hope your semester is a positive and productive one and that you will continue on the road toward academic success.

Sincerely,

Dr. Dennis L. Nef
Associate Vice President and Dean of Undergraduate Studies
California State University, Fresno