

APPLICATION DEADLINES FOR SPRING 2013

(Information updated as of August 1, 2012)

*For the most current information on Spring 2013 Admissions for Fresno State please visit www.csumentor.edu under "Is your campus still accepting applications"**

Due to budget reductions, California State University, Fresno is closed for most admission categories for the spring 2013 semester. However, the following majors will be open for applications starting August 1, 2012:

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, NURSING:

Open to upper division transfer applicants and second baccalaureate applicants to the RN TO BSN program in Nursing. This is a self-support program and is not classified as impacted for admission purposes. Application Deadline is September 30, 2012. Questions regarding the RN to BSN program can be directed to the Nursing Department at 278-2430.

CREDENTIAL PROGRAM:

Continuing undergraduate Fresno State students who are pursuing a teacher education objective will be allowed to transition into credential courses in spring 2013. The Application Deadline is September 30, 2012.

Admission for the spring 2013 semester is limited and will be based on space availability. Applications for admission can be submitted online at: www.csumentor.edu.

Closed Categories: The university remains closed to applications from first-time freshmen, all transfer applicants except for Nursing, returning students, and all other postbaccalaureate and graduate categories.

Several California State University campuses will accept applications for the spring 2013 semester/quarter only from California Community College students who have completed the Associate Degree for Transfer in accordance with provisions of Senate Bill 1440. Prospective applicants can view application deadlines for other CSU campuses at: www.csumentor.edu.

Questions regarding spring 2013 admission at Fresno State can be directed to 559.278.2261.