

FALL 2017 ACCEPT/DECLINE INSTRUCTIONS

Upper division transfer students who have been conditionally admitted to California State University, Fresno will need to complete the following steps to secure their space for the fall 2017 semester.

Beginning March 15th, the following three tasks must be completed online at <https://my.fresnostate.edu>.

ACCEPT admission to the university

REGISTER for DOG DAYS: New Student Orientation

PAY for orientation session

Follow the instructions below to ACCEPT, REGISTER, and PAY via your Fresno State portal:

- Visit <https://my.fresnostate.edu> and click the Sign In button found on the top left-hand side
- Enter Fresno State username and password and click the Login button
- Under My Menu on the left side of the screen, select Student Self Service
- Click on Student Center
- Click on the green arrow next to My Admissions and Program Applications
- Select the Accept/Decline link and follow the instructions to accept or decline your admission.
- After admission has been accepted, the student will see additional screens that will allow them to register and pay for a DOG DAYS: New Student Orientation session. Student must register and pay for an orientation session to complete acceptance to California State University, Fresno.

(If a student logs off after they ACCEPT their admission, they can log back into their Student Center and register for DOG DAYS by clicking on the Dog Days Orientation link found under “My Admissions and Program Applications.”)

The steps described above must be completed by June 30th, 2017 in order to avoid having an admission application withdrawn for the fall 2017 semester. If any of the above three steps are not completed, the student will not receive an evaluation of their transfer work and will not be able to register for fall courses.

For questions, please contact us at (559) 278-2261 or email admissions@csufresno.edu. Be sure to include Fresno State student ID number when emailing our office.

DOG DAYS: New Student Orientation

What is DOG DAYS Mandatory New Student Orientation?

DOG DAYS is a mandatory one day orientation program designed to welcome students to the Fresno State community. Participation in orientation is the best way for a conditionally admitted student to acclimate to the campus and serves as an important step in making the transition to life as a Bulldog.

When are the orientation dates for transfer students?

DOG DAYS: New Student Orientation sessions will be offered for transfers on the following dates:

July 11 th	July 19 th
July 13 th	July 21 st
July 17 th	July 25 th

Please visit <http://www.fresnostate.edu/dogdays> for more information

To Do List

- Transfer -

Access your Student Center on a weekly basis at <https://my.fresnostate.edu>

Under Student Center, pay close attention to the following:

- My Admissions and Program Applications – for application status
- Important Info & Holds – for registration and other holds
- To Do List – for remaining transcripts and other items

Accept/Decline Admission AND Register for DOG DAYS: See specific instructions on the back of this page.

Request an official transcript showing final spring 2017 grades posted. An electronic transcript sent directly from your school is highly recommended. Please use imaging@csufresno.edu as the recipient for official transcripts directly sent from your institution.

Review The Online Catalog and Class Schedule
<https://www.fresnostate.edu/catoffice>
<https://www.fresnostate.edu/studentaffairs/classschedule>

Provide the Health Center with proof of measles, rubella, and Hepatitis B immunization if required. www.fresnostate.edu/health

Apply for on-campus housing if needed. You can access housing information at www.universitycourtyard.org.

Questions:

Admissions or Registration: (559) 278-2261 admissions@csufresno.edu

DOG DAYS: (559) 278-4885 dogdays@mail.fresnostate.edu

Financial Aid: (559) 278-2182

Health Center: (559) 278-2734

On-campus Housing: (559) 278-2345