Get Involved in Shared Governance

(Fresno, CALIF.)- Fresno State's Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) is looking for student applicants to join campus-wide committees. Many University decisions are made in committees. ASI's priority is to make sure the student voice is present through each decision making process. The organization needs passionate and dedicated students to sit on committees this academic year.

Students can find the committee member application on ASI's Orgsync page by logging in with their Fresno State student ID. All student appointments are proposed by the ASI President and will be confirmed by the ASI Senate. Students receive hours toward the U.S. President's Service Award and could be recognized by the Fresno State President at his Spirit of Service event held in late Spring 2017.
