

News Contact:
Jordan King
jordanadamsking@gmail.com
559.278.8861 office

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 26, 2012

ASI Raises School Spirit with Homecoming Event

(FRESNO, Calif.) – In honor of Fresno State’s Homecoming game versus San Diego State, Associated Students Inc. is hosting “Bring it Home with the Dogs”.

On Thursday, Sept. 27 from 1-2 p.m. in the Free Speech Area, students will be given the chance to win Free football tickets, “Dog Bones” chocolate from the Fresno State Farmers market, and many more prizes.

“Homecoming is a time to show our school spirit and take a break from academics for a moment,” said Lindsey Fidler, Chair of the Activities Committee. “We are all Bulldogs and now is our time to be proud! This weekend come support our athletics and represent our school. Let's go Dogs!”

On Thursday, students will have the opportunity to spin a prize wheel and answer a Fresno State trivia question. Students will then win prizes and free football tickets.

ASI will be in the Free Speech Area joined with USU Productions who will be out promoting their Bulldog Pride Zone. This event will be before the game on Saturday, Sept. 29.

###

ASI is a body of elected student representatives that encourages student involvement in campus-wide decisions and funds student programs. As the student government we ensure that students’ rights are protected and their voices are heard.