Shared Governance

(Fresno, CALIF.)- Fresno State's Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) is looking for student applicants to join campus committees. Many University decisions are made in committees. ASI's priority is to make sure the student voice is present for each decision making process. The organization needs passionate and dedicated students to fill vacancies this academic year.

To apply students can visit asi.csufresno.edu under "Get Involved" and fill out the "Student Representative" online application. All student appointments are proposed by the ASI President and will be confirmed by the ASI Senate. Students receive hours toward the U.S. President's Service Award and could be recognized by the Fresno State President at his Spirit of Service event held in late Spring 2016.

As the recognized student body government organization at California State University, Fresno, Associated Students, Inc (ASI) provides a means for effective student participation in the governance of the University, fosters awareness of student opinions on campus issues, assists in the protection of student rights, and provides programs and services to meet the needs of the students and campus community.
