ASI Supports Kids Day in a New Way

(FRESNO, Calif.)- Fresno State volunteers were on the streets Tuesday morning, March 4, selling special editions of The Fresno Bee in which all proceeds went to Children's Hospital Central California in honor of Kids Day.

Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) distributed donuts and bottled water to the volunteers in the surrounding Fresno State areas. Distribution began at 6am and circulated until 9am.

A total of 10 dozen donuts and five cases of water were distributed.

"All of the students we encountered were surprised to see us and very thankful to President Menchaca and Senator Dhanjan for taking the time to come appreciate them like this. We had a great time serving the students who work so hard to make Kids Day awesome!" said Ashleigh Rocker, ASI Programs and Volunteer Coordinator.
