ASI rGrants Deadline Extended

(FRESNO, Calif.)- One of the major services that Associated Students Incorporated (ASI) offers to Fresno State students is the ability to provide financial support for students in graduate and undergraduate research study. rGrants can include grants for laboratory experiments, senior projects, field studies, printing of thesis, subscription to related journals, and material to create artwork.

Undergraduate student applications for rGrant funds can be used to cover project related software, equipment, materials, supplies, travel, data collection and analysis, and other project related expenses and up to one half of the grant can be used as student assistant funds.

ASI has extended the rGrant Undergraduate and Graduate application turn-in deadline to Wednesday April 23, 2014 at 5 p.m. Applications can be turned in to ASI in USU 317.

As the recognized student body government organization at California State University, Fresno, Associated Students, Inc (ASI) provides a means for effective student participation in the governance of the University, fosters awareness of student opinions on campus issues, assists in the protection of student rights, and provides programs and services to meet the needs of the students and campus community.
