

Contact:
Jordan King
jordanadamsking@gmail.com
559.278.8861, office

For Immediate Release
September 20, 2012

- Who: Fresno State Students
- What: Fresno State students will be hosting Greek Clean-up where they will be cleaning the streets and surrounding area of the Fraternity and Sorority houses on Millbrook Ave., Shaw Ave. and 6th St.
- Where: Fraternity Mall at Millbrook and 6th St. off Bulldog Ln., Greek houses on Shaw Ave.
- When: Sunday, Sept. 23, 2012 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Why: To support Fresno State revitalization efforts and make a difference in the surrounding Fresno State community.
- How: There will be two teams, one at Fraternity and Sorority Mall on Millbrook and 6th St. and the other at the Pi Kappa Alpha and Sigma Nu Fraternities on Shaw Ave.
These students will be doing trash pick-up, lawn services as well as repainting over items such as graffiti.
- Photo Op: Fresno State students cleaning up, students re-painting. The main clean-up will be at the Fraternity and Sorority Mall on Millbrook Ave. between Barstow Ave. and Bulldog Ln.

###

ASI is a body of elected student representatives that encourages student involvement in campus-wide decisions and funds student programs. As the student government, we ensure that students' rights are protected and their voices are heard.