

Contact:
Jordan King
jordanadamsking@gmail.com
559.278.8861, office

For Immediate Release
December 20, 2012

Students Spread Holiday Spirit with Cookies

- Who: Fresno State students and Associated Students Inc. will be serving the children of El Dorado Park.
- What: Fresno State students will lead and assist in helping children decorate holiday cookies.
- Where: Wesley United Methodist Church in Fireside Room.
(1343 E. Barstow, Fresno)
- When: 6-7 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 20.
- Why: To make a difference in the surrounding Fresno State community and spread the holiday spirit.
- How: Following their weekly Thursday night dinner, the children of El Dorado Park will have tables with cookies, frosting and various toppings. Fresno State students will be there to oversee and to participate in cookie decorating with the kids.
- Photo Op: Children decorating cookies, Fresno State students assisting and participating in cookie decorating

###

ASI is a body of elected student representatives that encourages student involvement in campus-wide decisions and funds student programs. As the student government, we ensure that students' rights are protected and their voices are heard.