

CROSS CULTURAL

Celebration Week

WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 15

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

Greek Day - Fraternity and Sorority Expo

11am-1pm (Front of Bookstore)

Curious about Greek Life on campus? Check out Greek Day and learn more about the 44 Greek organizations at Fresno State including the various Multicultural and Latino fraternities and sororities.

SEPTEMBER 15-19

Independence of the Americas Exhibit

Stop by the 2nd floor of the Henry Madden Library and check out the various artifacts displayed in recognition of the Independence of the Americas.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

Bienvenida

11:30am-1pm (Peace Garden)

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with the Latina/o Faculty and Staff Association with live performances from Fresno State's Los Danzantes de Aztlan and Mariachi Fresno State group.

International Coffee Hour

2-3pm (Henry Madden Library 2206)

Check out International Student Services and Programs' weekly coffee hour series! This week will highlight the country of Mexico presented by Alexandria Mendoza & Dolores Peralta.

SEPTEMBER 16-18

Bone Marrow & Blood Drive honoring Fresno State Alum Justin Garza

Tuesday: 4:30-7:30pm (Residence Dining Hall)

Wed & Thurs: 10am-4pm (Free Speech Area, Maple Mall, Kremen Education Building, Save Mart Center)

Join the national marrow registry—there is an urgent need for a diverse pool of donors because ethnicity plays a significant role in the donor/patient matching process. The marrow registry currently only consists of 7% African-Americans, 7% Asians/South Asians, and 10% Hispanic. People of all ethnicities are needed to help save lives!
