

Dog Days Overnight Participant Conduct Agreement

By accepting admission into Fresno State, you have joined our community of scholars. As a Fresno State student, you agree to adhere to the Policies of the University and those of the residence halls. Below are some of the policies governing student behavior. Please note that not all policies are outlined in this agreement, however, you are still expected to adhere to all such policies which can be found at <http://www.fresnostate.edu/studentaffairs/studentconduct/index.html>.

I further authorize the University to obtain necessary medical treatment for me and I hereby give permission for transportation to any medical facility or hospital. I authorize any qualified instructor, orientation staff member, or medical personnel to render necessary emergency medical care for me. I acknowledge that I am financially responsible for any medical treatment required.

Dog Days Overnight

- Dog Days Overnight is a Fresno State event and University rules must be followed.
- Only students participating in the Dog Days Overnight are allowed at this event. Visitors and overnight guests are not permitted.
Part of the orientation experience is staying in the residence hall with other new students. As a participant of Dog Days Overnight, you have to be present for the entire session. STUDENTS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO LEAVE CAMPUS UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, WITHOUT APPROVAL OF THE DOG DAYS COORDINATOR.
- Evening programming for all students staying on the overnight will take place from 5:00pm – 12:00am.
- After returning from the events, you are expected to stay in the residence halls the entire evening.
- If you become ill, please notify an Orientation Leader or other staff member immediately.
- If you lose or do not return your key to the residence hall at check out, you will be charged $25 for a replacement.
- Orientation Leaders and University Staff are on duty all night in the residence halls.
- In the event of an emergency, contact an on duty Orientation Leader immediately.

University Expectations

- Fresno State prohibits individuals under the age of 21 to purchase, consume, transport, possess, or sell alcoholic beverages. In addition, no student of any age is allowed to possess alcohol on campus while attending orientation including participating in the Dog Days Overnight. The use, sale, or possession of illegal drugs is prohibited on campus. Residence hall staff will notify police in situations involving drugs. There is a zero tolerance for anyone who violates this policy.
This means NO alcohol, NO drugs. If such a violation occurs the repercussions will be immediate and severe.
- Students who violate any Fresno State or Dog Days policies will be sent home and will be subject to student discipline through the Dean of Students.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above conditions of this Agreement and that I, intending to be legally bound, do agree to abide by them. I understand that if I violate this Agreement, disciplinary action may be taken that could affect my status as a student of Fresno State, including withholding class registration until issue is resolved. Photos and videos may be taken during your Dog Days Overnight experience. By signing this document I authorize and release the use of any photographic or video recorded image of the participant listed below.
