WARNING:
If you purposely give false or misleading information you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.

Below is information and instructions for whom to include in the household, as well as for the “College Name” field.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HOUSEHOLD SIZE

NOTE: Consistent with the Supreme Court decision on the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), same –sex couples must report their marital status as married if they were legally married in a state or other jurisdiction (foreign country) that permits same-sex marriage (people in a civil union or domestic partnership are not considered “married” for student aid purposes).

Who is the parent for the FAFSA?

For the FAFSA, “parent” refers to your biological and/or adoptive parents (as well as your step-parent if that person is currently married to your “parent”)

The following are NOT considered to be a “legal parent” for the FAFSA:

- Grandparents, foster parents, legal guardians, aunts and uncles are NOT considered parents unless they have legally adopted you.
- Any person who is not married to your parent and who is not a legal or biological parent.

Who do you list in the household?

List the people in your household, including:

- yourself, (the student)
- your parent(s), (including a stepparent)
- your parent(s) other children, even if they do not live with your parents IF
 - ⇒ Your parent(s) will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016 OR
 - ⇒ the children would be required to provide parental information when completing a 2015-2016 FAFSA
- other people currently living with your parent(s) for whom your parent(s) currently provides and will continue to provide at least 50% of their support from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016.

Do not include the following:

- Foster children
- Any child your parent is paying child support for

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING “ATTENDING COLLEGE”

On your FAFSA application, you were asked to identify the number of people attending college for the 2015-2016 aid year. The number in college should include any household member who:

- Will be enrolled at least half-time at an eligible post-secondary education institution
- At any time between July 1, 2015 and June 30, 2016
- In a degree, diploma, or certificate program
- The number in college should not include your parent(s)

For each person who meets the above criteria, indicate the name of the college. If the college the person is attending is Fresno State, be sure to also include that person’s Fresno State Student ID number.

NOTE: We may require additional documentation if we have reason to believe that the information regarding the household members enrolled in eligible post-secondary educational institutions is inaccurate.
