Term _____

Federal law specifies how your school must determine the amount of Student Financial Assistance you earn if you withdraw. When you completely withdraw during a semester, the amount of financial aid, which you have earned, to the point of withdrawal, will be determined by a specific formula.

If you received less assistance than the amount you earned, you may be eligible to receive those funds, (assuming you meet all the documentation requirements, within the specified time frame).

Based on your withdrawal on _____ and submission of all required documents, you are/may be eligible to receive the following:

Federal Pell Grant: $ _____

Federal Supplemental Educational Grant: $ _____

Federal Perkins Loan: $ _____

Subsidized Federal Direct Loan: $ _____

Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan: $ _____

Federal PLUS Loan: $ _____

Your file is incomplete. Please refer to your Student Center at my.fresnostate.edu for required documents.

Please check your account summary on your student portal at my.csufresno.edu regarding your billing for prorated fees incurred or other related charges.

Based on verification of the data on the documents submitted and the data on your application, your eligibility will be finalized and if eligible, a disbursement will be made to you within 120 days of your withdrawal.

NOTE: Borrowing loans are subject to repayment. Please refer to your Student Center at my.fresnostate.edu for detailed information regarding federal loans.
