MARITAL STATUS & TAX FILING STATUS

If your marital status is "Married," there are two standard options for your IRS tax filing status:

- Married Filing Separate
- OR
- Married Filing Jointly

In very limited situations, a married tax filer may have a filing status other than the two listed.

If your marital status is "Married" and you filed your taxes with a status of anything other than the two options listed above you must include the following when submitting your IRS Tax Return Transcript and Income Verification Form:

- ⇒ A signed letter from your TAX PREPARER
  - The letter should be on letterhead, and must explain why your filing status meets IRS regulations.

NOTE: Failure to submit the letter with your Income Verification documents will delay processing of your student's file.
