Legal Guardianship Verification

STUDENT ID	STUDENT LAST NAME	STUDENT FIRST NAME	PHONE NUMBER (with area code)
PLEASE PRINT IN BLACK INK

On your FAFSA application you answered yes to question #55, indicating that "someone other than your parent or stepparent has legal guardianship of you, as determined by a court in your state of residence".

The FAFSA definition of legal guardianship does not include your parents, even if they were appointed by a court to be your guardian. You are also not considered a legal guardian of yourself.

If you are still a minor and the court order is no longer in effect, or, the court decision was not in effect at the time you being an adult, you should have answered no. Update your FAFSA application with the correct answer.

➔ This "To Do" item will be removed once the Financial Aid Office receives the correction.

Required Legal Guardianship Documentation

Please check the appropriate box for your situation.

I was in a legal guardianship as of the date I filled out the FAFSA application. Attached is my court decision in which the dates show the order is still in effect and has not been changed.

I was in a legal guardianship immediately before being an adult in my state of legal residency. Attached is my court decision in which the dates show the order was still in effect immediately before being an adult and has not been changed.

NOTE: If you are missing pages or need an updated copy showing no changes, you can request updated documentation from the county court office where the decision was made
