

Aleta Wolfe

Our Beacon Award winner for 2007-08 is Aleta Wolfe. Aleta is a career counselor in the Career Services office. In her nomination, Aleta was acknowledged for her diligent work in facilitating the Scholarship Service Grant for Fresno State students, and for her ability to inspire civic engagement among our students. She was also cited for her capacity to build and maintain relationships with campus faculty/staff and members of the local community. Aleta's ability to increase the involvement of first generation and historically underrepresented groups of students in campus programs through the SSG Program was especially applauded. Aleta's nomination also included specific comments from students and faculty praising her exceptional work and her commitment to students. Congratulations Aleta on being a Beacon Award Recipient.
