FACULTY MEMBER NOMINATED:

FACULTY MEMBER'S DEPARTMENT:

FACULTY MEMBER: I ACCEPT THE NOMINATION FOR FRESNO STATE TALKS. (SIGN BELOW)

Fresno State Talks is a student-led lecture series featuring outstanding faculty who exemplify the University's values of Discovery, Diversity, and Distinction. Students are encouraged to nominate faculty in one or both of the following categories:

- Discovery: A tenure-track faculty member who strives to discover new knowledge. Through outstanding teaching and mentoring, the faculty member also encourages discovery and growth of students.

- Distinction: A full-time faculty member whose outstanding teaching, scholarship, and research has brought distinction to his/her discipline and the University as well as impacted students. Emphasis will be placed on academic focus and accomplishments.

Student(s), please address the following on a separate page:

- 1) Briefly outline how the nominee meets the criteria for the selected category/categories.
- 2) Outline the nominee's accomplishments, areas of research, and impact on the campus and local community.

Once nominated, the faculty member will receive further information about submitting an abstract and curriculum vitae. Fresno State Talks are scheduled for February 20th or 21st (Discovery) and March 5th, 6th, or 7th (Distinction). The selected faculty members will be recognized for their achievements and honored with a professional development award of $500.

Nominations must be submitted no later than Thursday, November 1st to Student Involvement, USU 306, or via email to getinvolved@csufresno.edu.
