Campus Involvement Ambassadors (CIA) serve as a resource to students interested in becoming connected to the campus community through involvement. In order to apply, students must have previous involvement experience at Fresno State.

Responsibilities:

- Promote campus involvement by connecting students to clubs and events.
- Introduce students to leadership opportunities on campus, and facilitate leadership retreats.
- Examples of events include: tabling, presentations, and meeting with students.

The USU Board of Directors oversees the services and facilities of the University Student Union (USU). They are the student representatives on matters affecting the USU and Satellite Student Union.

Responsibilities:

- Establish policies, guidelines, and budget for the USU.
- Provide input about the programs and services the USU offers.
- Examples of events include: public relations, special projects, committee meetings, and conduct tours.

Vintage Days is Fresno State's largest student-planned campus and community celebration.

The annual spring event combines social, cultural, and recreational activities into a weekend festival on campus.

Responsibilities:

- Publicize the event through different media outlets.
- Plan and implement all aspects of the weekend activities for the celebration.
- Examples of events include: organize food and game booths, concerts, crafts faire, and kid's zone.
