

USU Board

Neophyte Committee

Application 2015-2016

The University Student Union (USU) Board of Directors gives students a voice when it comes to decision-making for the University Student Union (USU) and Satellite Student Union (SSU) facilities with an annual operating budget of over $2 million dollars. Serving on the USU Board of Directors are 12-15 student leaders working alongside faculty and administrators from across campus to help the USU meet the needs of Fresno State students.

Do you consider yourself a leader?

Join the USU Board of Directors Neophyte Committee!

Board Neophyte Committee: Will assist the USU Board of Directors members in planning projects, running events, administrating the annual operating budget, representing all students on issues affecting the University Student Union (USU) and the Satellite Student Union (SSU), and by encouraging student involvement and leadership development.

All students are welcomed and encouraged to join the Board Neophyte Committee. No experience is necessary, just interest, commitment, and enthusiasm.
