*PLEASE ENSURE THE PROFESSOR KNOWS THEY'RE BEING NOMINATED AND UNDERSTANDS THE NATURE OF THE FRESNO STATE TALKS LECTURE SERIES

Has a faculty member at Fresno State made an impact on you? We want to know!

Fresno State Talks is a student-selected lecture series featuring outstanding faculty who exemplify the University's values of Discovery, Diversity, and Distinction. Students are encouraged to nominate faculty members who pursue knowledge through research and discovery; who celebrate and further diversity in and outside of the classroom; or who have made distinguished academic contributions to their discipline and the Fresno State community. Selected nominees will be recognized for their achievements and given the opportunity to deliver a lecture to the campus community.

*Briefly explain how the faculty member inspires you and exemplifies discovery, diversity and/or distinction.
(Please keep your explanation under 250 words)*

*For more information, visit us online at www.fresnostate.edu/jstalks
Nominations must be submitted no later than Monday, November 14th to Student Involvement, USU 306, or via email to getinvolved@csufresno.edu.*
