Get Involved!

Becoming involved on campus is a great way to make a difference and leave your mark on the Fresno State community! The Student Involvement Center provides a variety of opportunities to enhance and maximize your college experience through involvement. Leadership Boards through the Student Involvement Center include: Campus Involvement Ambassadors (CIA), University Student Union (USU) Board of Directors, USU Productions, and Vintage Days.

Currently the Student Involvement Center is looking for qualified individuals to join these Leadership Boards. To apply, complete the attached application and submit it to the Student Involvement Center, USU Room 306. Upon submission of your application, an interview for each Leadership Board applied for will be scheduled.

So... how will you leave YOUR mark on Fresno State?

Campus Involvement Ambassadors

Campus Involvement Ambassadors serve as resource to students interested in becoming connected to the campus community. In addition to introducing students to a variety of opportunities, ambassadors promote campus involvement and assist in the development of student clubs and organizations.

Campus Involvement Ambassadors are responsible for:

- Promoting campus involvement through presentations and campus outreach
- Serving as a resource for students seeking to get involved at Fresno State
- Developing and strengthening student clubs and organizations
- Promoting, attending, and facilitating two Emerging Leaders Retreats
- Attendance at trainings, weekly meetings, and weekly office hours

Applicants should have previous leadership experience at Fresno State.

Members are required to be enrolled full-time and maintain a semester and cumulative GPA of 2.50 throughout the application process and the 2013-2014 academic year.

USU Board of Directors

The USU Board of Directors oversees the programs, services, and facilities of the University Student Union (USU) by establishing general operating policy and providing direction and input about the programs and services within the USU. Committees of the USU Board include: Budget & Finance, PR & Marketing, Planning & Operations, and Personnel.

Members of the USU Board are responsible for:

- Serving on a professional board with faculty and administrators from across campus to help meet the needs of students
- Representing the voice of students regarding issues affecting the USU and Satellite Student Union
- Encouraging student involvement and leadership development
- Attendance at trainings, weekly meetings, and weekly office hours

Members are required to be enrolled full-time and maintain a semester and cumulative GPA of 2.00 throughout the application process and the 2013-2014 academic year.

USU Productions

USU Productions is where the fun is at! This programming board strives to develop entertaining and enriching events and programs throughout the year. It consists of ten committees including: B.A.G. of Laughs, Big Screen, Celebrations & Festivals, CenterStage, The Music Scene, The Point, Public Relations & Marketing, Recreation & Leisure, Special Events, and Spirit.
