

I Aint
by Philip

I aint a bad person, just because you dont approve.
I'm not a bad person, I'm just myself.
You're not any better or worse of a person than I am.
Most of you can't see it, but we are very much alike.

We play the same game, just you like the opposite, I like the same.
Are we the same? I think so. Do you?

On a New Year's Eve cruise that my lover and i went on;
I wanted my midnight kiss.
My lover wanted to party.
Dish this, the kiss turned into a fight that night.
Some would think we could have both,
the answer to that is we could not.

Some of you act like we are on different teams...
we are on the same team, you just don't realize we are the same.
I aint a bad person just because you don't approve.
