Prerequisites
The prerequisites for this course are admission to the Educational Leadership and Administration Program and the following courses: ERA 288, EAD 261, EAD 262, EAD 263, EAD 272, and EAD 274.

Dispositions
The faculty of the Kremen School of Education and Human Development foster the development of the following candidate dispositions: Reflection, Critical Thinking, Professional Ethics, Valuing Diversity, Collaboration, and Life-long Learning. Candidates will increasingly reflect these dispositions in their work with students, families, and communities.

Primary Learning Outcomes
As the culminating course for the program, the candidate will synthesize information from previous courses and develop and expand his/her knowledge and skill to manage and lead all operations of a school.

Specific learning outcomes for the course are derived from the standards of the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the Preliminary Administrative Services Credential and standards of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE):
1. The candidate develops knowledge and skill to coordinate and equitably align fiscal, human (faculty, staff, volunteer, community) and material resources with the school planning process in support of learning of all students and all groups of students. 6I(9) and 12(d)

2. The candidate develops the knowledge and skill to operate the school consistently within the parameters of federal, state, and local laws, policies, regulations, and statutory and fiscal requirements. 6(f)(1) and 15(b)

3. The candidate examines the context within which the school operates, including the school district, employee bargaining units, the school board, and other governmental entities and to understand how the policies from several levels of government influence teaching and learning at the school site. 6(f)(2)

4. The candidate develops the knowledge to influence and support public policies that ensure the equitable distribution of resources and support for all the subgroups of students. 6(f)(4) and 15(e)

5. The candidate develops the knowledge to leverage and marshal sufficient resources to implement and attain the vision for all students and subgroups of students. 10I

6. The candidate develops the knowledge and skill to monitor and supervise faculty and staff at the site, and manage and evaluate the instructional program. 12(a)

7. The candidate develops the knowledge to establish school operations, patterns, and processes that support student learning. 12(b)

8. The candidate develops the knowledge and skill to manage legal and contractual policies, agreements and records in ways that foster a professional work environment and secure privacy and confidentiality for all students and staff. 12I and 14(k)

9. The candidate demonstrates the knowledge and skill to sustain a safe, efficient, clean, well maintained, and productive school environment that nurtures student learning and supports the professional growth of teachers and support staff. 12(e)

10. The candidate develops the knowledge and skill to utilize the principles of systems management, organizational development, problem solving, and collaborative decision-making techniques fairly and effectively. 12(f)

11. The candidate develops the knowledge and skill to use effective and positive nurturing practices in establishing student behavior management systems. 12(g)

12. The candidate develops the knowledge and skill to effectively evaluate and use a wide range of technologies, including assistive technologies when appropriate, to support instruction and effective school administration. 12(i)
Required Texts and Instructional Materials

Additional materials will be available on the electronic Blackboard system for the course. It is a course requirement that candidates check their designated email and the course on Blackboard at least once a week, preferably several days before the class, during the entire semester.

Embedded Fieldwork

There are four embedded fieldwork assignments for this course: Interview Simulation; Attendance, Observation and Write-Up for two meetings (Board of Education and ELAC); Site Leader Interview (Suspension Process) and Summary/Reflection Paper; Budget/Funding Inventory of Current State. The templates and requirements for each assignment are included at the end of this syllabus.

Signature Assignments

There are four signature assignments for this course: Personnel Discipline Letter based on Case Scenario; Personal Professional Growth Plan; Culminating Simulation for Administrative Position (Statement of Philosophy, Resume, Practicum, and Interview); and Capstone Paper/Current State and Desired Future. The templates and requirements for each assignment are included at the end of this syllabus.

Other Assignments

As part of the ongoing assessment of the effectiveness of this course, there is an expectation that students will assess the activities, processes and assignments used to support learning outcomes. The professor will distribute this assessment protocol, and candidates’ honest feedback will assist in continuing to make this course relevant for future students.

Grading

Grading will be as follows:

A = Outstanding achievement; exceeds expectations
B = Graduate quality; meets expectations
C = Below expectations
F = Does not meet program requirements

University Policies and Regulations

Policy on Students with Disabilities: Upon identifying themselves to the instructor and the university, students with disabilities will receive reasonable accommodation for learning and evaluation. For more information, contact Services to Students with Disabilities in Madden Library 1049 (278-2811).

Computers: “At California State University, Fresno, computers and communications links to remote resources are recognized as being integral to the education and research experience. Every student is required to have his/her own computer or have other personal access to a workstation (including a modem and a printer) with all the recommended software. The minimum and recommended standards for the workstations and software, which may vary by academic major, are updated periodically and are available from Information Technology Services or the University Bookstore. In the curriculum and class assignments, students are presumed to have 24-hour access to a computer workstation and the necessary communication links to the University’s information resources.”

It is expected that you have access to Blackboard. If you do not have access, please call 278-7373 (Digital Campus) and provide your instructor with an update on the situation and status.

Honor Code: “Members of the CSU Fresno academic community adhere to principles of academic integrity and mutual respect while engaged in university work and related activities.” You should:

- understand or seek clarification about expectations for academic integrity in this course (including no cheating, plagiarism and inappropriate collaboration)
- neither give nor receive unauthorized aid on examinations or other course work that is used by the instructor as the basis of grading.
- take responsibility to monitor academic dishonesty in any form and to report it to the instructor or other appropriate official for action.

Instructors may require students to sign a statement at the end of all exams and assignments that “I have done my own work and have neither given nor received unauthorized assistance on this work.”

Cheating and Plagiarism: “Cheating is the actual or attempted practice of fraudulent or deceptive acts for the purpose of improving one’s grade or obtaining course credit; such acts also include assisting another student to do so. Typically, such acts occur in relation to examinations. However, it is the intent of this definition that the term ‘cheating’ not be limited to examination situations only, but that it include any and all actions by a student that are intended to gain an unearned academic advantage by fraudulent or deceptive means. Plagiarism is a specific form of cheating which consists of the misuse of the published and/or unpublished works of others by misrepresenting the material (i.e., their intellectual property) so used as one’s own work.” Penalties for cheating and plagiarism range from a 0 or F on a particular assignment, through an F for the course, to expulsion from the university. For more information on the University’s policy regarding cheating and plagiarism, refer to the Class Schedule (Legal Notices on Cheating and Plagiarism) or the University Catalog (Policies and Regulations).

Disruptive Classroom Behavior: “The classroom is a special environment in which students and faculty come together to promote learning and growth. It is essential to this learning environment that respect for the rights of others seeking to learn, respect for the professionalism of the instructor, and the general goals of academic freedom are maintained. ... Differences of viewpoint or concerns should be expressed in terms which are supportive of the learning process, creating an environment in which students and faculty may learn to reason with clarity and compassion, to share of themselves without losing their identities, and to develop and understanding of the community in which they live . . . Student conduct which disrupts the learning process shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.”

EAD 269: Site-Based Leadership
Signature Assignments

Signature Assignment 1 - Personnel Discipline Letter based on Case Scenario: Candidate will select one of the given hypothetical scenarios: Classified Employee Hypothetical or Certificated Employee Hypothetical. Candidate will decide what action, the evaluator should take based on the conduct in the hypothetical and document the conduct in the hypothetical by writing an appropriate memorandum (Conference Summary Memo, Warning Letter, Letter of Reprimand) based on the FRISK (Facts, Rule, Impact, Suggestions/Directives, Knowledge) Documentation Model. Candidate will write a justification explaining the reasons for evaluator actions and a reflection about his/her key insights and learnings as a result of this assignment.

Signature Assignment 2 - Personal Professional Growth Plan: The candidate will reflect on current and past coursework (leadership topics and student learning outcomes). Candidate will prepare a plan for her/his professional growth based on coursework and assessed needs. The candidate will share the plan with his/her immediate supervisor for feedback and support and obtain supervisor’s signature. See Professional Growth Plan template.

Personnel Discipline Letter based on Case Scenario; Personal Professional Growth Plan; Culminating Simulation for Administrative Position (Statement of Philosophy, Resume, Practicum, and Interview); and Capstone Paper/Current State and Desired Future. The templates and requirements for each assignment are included at the end of this syllabus.

Signature Assignment 3 - - Culminating Simulation for an Entry-Level Administrative Position: The candidate will complete four assignments relative to the application and hiring process to be selected for an administrative position.

2. Resume: The candidate will prepare a resume for use in the interview simulation.
3. Practicum: The candidate will respond in writing to a practicum that will be used during the interview simulation.
4. Interview Simulation: The candidate will participate in an interview simulation for an entry-level administrative position.

Signature Assignment 4 - - Capstone Paper/Current State and Desired Future
Format for Final Paper will be introduced at the beginning of the semester and worked on throughout the semester.
EAD 269: Site-Based Leadership
Signature Assignment 4
Capstone Paper/Current State and Desired Future

ASSIGNMENT GUIDELINES
Analysis/Reflection Papers (Each Class Session)
Format: APA Format
1-2 pages
Current Reality to Desired Future (Vision)
Actions Necessary (Reallocation of Resources)
Incorporate data sources – Outcome Data and Process Data
Consider readings and presentations from guest speakers

Final Paper
Format: APA Format
10-15 pages

Current Reality
Using the Single Plan for Student Achievement, describe your site student performance targets. Examine specific site subgroups for strengths and weaknesses in students’ achievement levels. Include the allocation of all resources.
* People  * Time  * Capacity of System
* Money  * Capacity of Individuals

Desired Future
Fast-forward five years:
1. How have resources, including funds, been reallocated to address student achievement goals and district student performance targets? Examine specific site subgroups for strengths and weaknesses in students’ achievement levels.
2. How have fiscal resources been reallocated?
3. How has the use of time been rethought?
4. How have roles and responsibilities shifted?
5. What was done to build capacity?

Analysis
1. Provide rationale, including research and class learnings, for the shift from current reality to desired future.
2. Incorporate reflections from previous assignments
3. Describe barriers and how they were addressed
4. Acknowledge supports
