

MINOR IN CREATIVE WRITING

The Creative Writing minor offers substantial training for students wishing to supplement their major area work, prepare themselves better for graduate work, prepare for classroom teaching and other fields, or who simply have an interest in the art of literary writing.

Coordinated by:

Master of Fine Arts Program
in Creative Writing

REQUIREMENTS

The Creative Writing minor requires 20 units, at least 12 of which must be upper-division units. Courses taken as CR/NC may not apply to the minor.

Lower Division courses	Units
ENGL 41, 42H, 43 or 44	4-8
Upper Division courses	Units
ENGL 161, 163 or 164	8-12
Literature courses*	Units
ENGL 101, 102 or 103	4
Total units	20

NOTES

The Creative Writing minor requires a 2.0 GPA and 8 upper-division units in residence. Prerequisites for required courses may be waived only with permission of both the minor adviser and the specific course instructor, on the basis of an adequate writing sample.

For admission to the minor, the student must be admitted to the University and enrolled in a baccalaureate degree program.

* Students majoring in English may select any upper-division literature course (not already counting toward the major) to fill this requirement.
