UNIVERSITY

California State University, Fresno is the premier regional university serving Central California's diverse, growing population. In 2017, the university rose in national rankings to No. 17 on Washington Monthly's list of top universities and ranked the nation's best public university in graduation rate performance, according to U.S. News and World Report. Our faculty include a Pulitzer Prizewinner, a U.S. Poet Laureate and hundreds of subject matter experts who are passionate about teaching the next generation of leaders for the Valley, California and the nation. Service to our region is an important part of our mission. The prestigious Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching awarded Fresno State its Community Engagement Classification, acknowledging the university's extensive partnership with our region. In the past decade, Fresno State has provided 10,084,974 hours of community service to the Central Valley and beyond, a milestone achieved through our extensive service-learning efforts.

With an enrollment of more than 24,000 students, Fresno State offers 62 undergraduate degree programs and 45 master's degree programs, an Educational Specialist degree, a Doctorate in Educational Leadership, a Doctorate in Physical Therapy, and a Doctor of Nursing Practice, plus 10 certificates of advanced study.

The Fresno State campus sits against a backdrop of the beautiful Sierra Nevada mountain range and within two hours of three national parks - Yosemite, Sequoia and Kings Canyon. Our Student Recreation Center and the Henry Madden Library join in the blend of traditional and modern buildings on the 383-acre main campus, which also includes a 1,011-acre University Farm that is considered one of the most modern and best-equipped agricultural facilities in the West. The Downing Planetarium is visited by thousands annually, and the Smittcamp Family Honors College admits 50 of California's top high school graduates each year with full scholarships. Fresno State student-athletes are top competitors in Division I sports.

The University is the sixth oldest in the California State University system, originally founded in 1911 as the first junior college in the State. In 1961, under the newly created California State College system, the administration and control of the State colleges was transferred to the Trustees of the California State Colleges. The system was renamed The California State University in 1972.

The campus serves a large, diverse multi-cultural population from the Central Valley and neighboring communities, as well as a large number of students from California, and other states and nations.
