

Moises Pedraza

Who he is:

Moises Pedraza is from Houston, Texas. He is graduating from Fresno with a Construction Management degree in Fall 2024.

Personal interests:

Moises enjoys learning different skills such as instruments, graphic media, and sports.

Summary of Internship:

Moises is currently serving as the Construction Management Intern for the Fresno State CUPR project. He's excited to further his career in California, along with further developing his skills, and learning different areas of construction.