

Rosendo Garcia

Who is he:

Rosendo Garcia is from Mendota, California. He is graduating from Fresno State with a Construction Management degree, to become a project engineer.

Personal interests

Rosendo enjoys spending his time outdoors, doing activities such as fishing and hiking. He also likes to play video games and sports on his free time.

Summary of internship:

Rosendo is currently serving as the Construction Management Intern for the Fresno State CUPR project. He is thrilled to learn new skills in the construction management field, and developing his skills to become a superintendent.