

Untenured Faculty Organization Multicultural Research Panel

Friday April 9 at 3:15 p.m., UC 202

Come hear some of our tenure-track faculty talk about their research on multicultural issues.

Presenters:

Dr. De Anna J. Reese, Assistant Professor, Department of History and Africana and American Indian Studies

- "Beyond Skin Deep: African American Beauty Culture, Entrepreneurship, and Activism in A Border State"

Dr. Bridget Conlon, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology

- "Latino/a Teen Risk for Depression and Adult Hopes for the Future in the Central Valley"

Dr. Amanda Mortimer, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology

- "Studying Caregiving for Spouses with Alzheimer's Disease in Fresno's Mexican-American Community"

Co-organized by Dr. Melanie Ram (UFO Research Support Chair), Dept. of Political Science, and Dr. Cristina Herrera (UFO Diversity & Multicultural Issues Chair), Dept. of Chicano & Latin American Studies