

RIMI Grant Writing Workshop

The RIMI program will sponsor an NIH grant writing seminar on Feb 25, 2014 from 8:30 am – 4:30 pm in the Library, Rm 2108.

The seminar will be conducted by professional staff from Grant Writers' Seminars and Workshops (GWSW), an organization founded by academicians, for academicians, to help them with the grant writing process. Consultants will emphasize application of fundamentals and principles as well as practical tips and strategies that make the difference between success and failure.

Please contact Ronna Crews (8x6076) or rcrews@csufresno.edu to express your interest in attending this day-long seminar.
